PHA ANNOUNCES CEO SEARCH COMMITTEE

On Monday, April 27, 2015, during the Peoria Housing Authority (PHA) Board of Commissioners meeting, Chairman Ken Zika announced that Commissioner James Fassino will chair the committee tasked with finding a replacement for out-going CEO Brenda Coates. Coates announced her retirement last month in a press release. She will leave the PHA after 27 non-consecutive years of service, including nine as the PHA's top administrator.

The remaining positions on the committee will be filled by Chairman Zika, Vice Chairman John Williams, former Commissioner Thea Robinson, and former Police Chief John Stenson, who also served as a PHA Commissioner.
